Regulating Health +
Social Care Professionals

Registrant: Adrian Peconcillo

Registration No: RA042183

Findings: Professional Misconduct

Sanction: To attach the following conditions to the Registrant's registration pursuant to s.66(1)(b) of the Act of 2005 (as amended):

- (i) That prior to recommencing practise (but not later than 12 months from this condition becoming effective) and at his own expense, the Registrant undertake and complete an appropriate course (to be agreed with CORU) relating to safeguarding children and vulnerable adults and to provide written evidence to the Registrar of CORU that such course has been undertaken and completed.
- (ii) That prior to recommencing practise (but not later than 12 months from this condition becoming effective) and at his own expense, the Registrant undertake and complete an appropriate course (to be agreed with CORU) relating to social media and professional practise and to provide written evidence to the Registrar of CORU that such course has been undertaken and completed.
- (iii) That at his own expense, and within 12 months of this condition becoming effective, the Registrant undertake and complete an appropriate course (to be agreed with CORU) relating to professional ethics, trust, care and dignity in the workplace and to provide written evidence to the Registrar of CORU that such course has been undertaken and completed.
- (iv) That for a period of 12 months from this condition becoming effective, the Registrant shall not carry out any radiography services on persons under the age of 18 years of age save in exceptional circumstances in which case he shall only do so under the supervision of a colleague or healthcare practitioner.
- (v) That during the period that these conditions remain in place, the Registrant shall inform his current employer and any prospective employer, organisation and/or agency of the findings herein and the attachment of these conditions on his Registration when working as or seeking employment and/or contract/voluntary work as a radiographer.

The decision to attach conditions to the radiographer's registration was confirmed by the High Court on 30 June 2025.
